READING

Located on the two banks of the river Thames, London is the capital city of England and of the United Kingdom. With almost eight million inhabitants, it is one of the most populated cities in Europe. Founded by the Romans, who gave it the name of Londinium, London has a long history.

London is, with new York City, the world's leading financial centre and also one of the most visited cities in the world. It has a great range of people and cultures: more than three hundred languages are spoken in this city.

Greater London – that's to say the metropolis developed around the core – is split into Inner London and Outer London.

Inner London includes the city's most famous landmarks, such as the Tower Bridge, the Tower on London, Westminster Abbey, Piccadilly Circus, Buckingham Palace, the Houses of Parliament, Hyde Park, St Paul's Cathedral, the London Eye, and so on.

Choose the right alternative.

WRITING

Read this email from Peter:

Hi, my dear friend!

Here I am in New York, the Big Apple, and I'm having a great time. We're staying in a wonderful hotel near Central Park, with two swimming pools and a tennis court!

Now we're having a rest in our rooms. Mum's writing some postcards, dad's studying the city map and Mary's listening to music. After lunch, we're going for a walk in Central Park and in the evening we're having dinner in a Chinese restaurant in Soho.

Yesterday we did some sightseeing: we saw the Brooklyn Bridge and we went to the top of the Empire State Building: the view over NY City was fantastic! We also saw Times Square and the Rockefeller Center.

The day before yesterday, instead, we went to Ellis Island and then visited the Statue of Liberty.

I'm really enjoying this great holiday here in New York!!

And what about you? Let me know.

Bye-bye!

Talk soon,

Peter

Now write an email to your English friend Peter. You are on holiday in Italy. Say where you are (seaside, mountains, lake, historic city, little village, ect.), what you are doing at the moment and what you did yesterday.
